

I have promised to write a brief story about myself as an introduction to our parishioners. Here it is:

I was born on March 13th, 1979, in Vung Tau city (two hours from Sai Gon or Ho chi Minh city) South East of Viet Nam. I am the youngest in a family of 7 children- five boys and two girls.

I came to Canada on July 19th, 2001. I was in Saskatoon for one year to learn English. In 2002, Bishop Blaise Morand, sent me to Ottawa to do my Philosophy and Theology at the Dominican College. In 2007, I came back to our diocese to do my internship. I was ordained as priest for our diocese on May 23rd of 2008, at the Sacred Heart Cathedral in Prince Albert.

My first assignment was St. Louis and Domremy. My second appointment was in the Shellbrook, Leask, Marcelin pastoral Zone. For my third appointment, I was sent to the Paradise Hill, Onion Lake, Thunderchild and Maidstone pastoral Zone. Now, I am here with our people of St. Brieux and Kinistino.

I would like to take this opportunity to say Thank You to all our people, for your warm welcome of me to our communities of St. Brieux and Kinistino. In the rectory, I have new flooring, new furniture in the living room and three raised garden boxes. Thanks for what you are doing to make the place a home for me. I feel very blessed to know and to walk with our people. The people of faith! May God bless us all!

Father Tru Le- pastor of St. Brieux and Mary Mother of God-Kinistino.
