

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them.... [T]hey are in peace.

WISDOM 3:1, 3

The Great Halloween Mistress

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

One Halloween, the lady who lived in the big white house down the block gave out bottles of Coke for trick-or-treat. Not 6-ouncers, not 10-ouncers, but 12-ouncers! I remember going up to her door like we did at every other house, stomping up the steps, ringing the bell and waiting, then yelling, "Trick or treat!" for a piece of penny candy as the door opened. Instead, our eyes widened with disbelief as we gasped, "Wow! A bottle of Coke! Gee, thanks a lot." I remember her smile and the look of delight in her eyes at making some scraggly neighborhood kids so excited. Before long, word got out among that night's goblins and saints. Kids I had never seen before, kids from neighboring communities, all came streaming in, and she gave each of them a bottle of Coke. To me, it was unbelievable—such generosity. That year, nobody dared "trick" her house. We made sure. Among us kids, such generosity did not go unrewarded.

On All Souls' Day, we remember those who have died, and we remember them with an awareness of the need we all have for God's mercy. Sometimes, I think that God is like that woman who lived in the big white house down the block. God is the Great Halloween Mistress. We come to her, armed with our tricks to get what we want, and she disarms us with her unbelievable generosity—the greatest "treater" of all time. God gives us everything undeserved—the most generous treats ever, all year round. ●

Reflect

What experiences of God's generous blessings have I known? Have I taken any for granted?

Prayer for Priests

LORD, life up your holy priests, deacons and religious. Grant them the graces they need to minister to your people. Keep them pure and strong in your love. Give them courage when things are difficult, and accompany them when they are lonely. Strengthen them in times of weakness. AMEN

Dear Padre,

Do we pray for the dead on All Souls' Day for what we can do for them, or for what they can do for us?

On All Souls' Day, the Church celebrates the one body in Christ that unites its members on earth, in purgatory, and in heaven. For more than a thousand years, we've commemorated this transcendent bond on the second day of November, whether at Mass, in a cemetery, or on a home altar to the faithful departed. This bond of companionship between the living and deceased is so vital to our spiritual well-being that All Souls' Day is celebrated even when November 2 falls on a Sunday.

Because Catholics are in communion with one another through an active relationship that transcends death, our prayers, Masses, sacrifices, and works of charity can be offered up on behalf of the deceased. (See 2 Maccabees 12:38–46.) Souls that get to heaven, in turn, offer their prayers on behalf of the living. Thus, our assistance to the deceased, and their intercession for us, is mutually beneficial! "A perennial link of charity exists between the faithful who have already reached their heavenly home, those who are expiating their sins in purgatory, and those who are still pilgrims on earth. Between them there is, too, an abundant exchange of all good things" (Indulgentiarum Doctrina, 5; Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1475, 954–955, 962). May perpetual light shine upon the souls of the faithful departed. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

In a world wounded by violence and conflict.... I am convinced that if we are...free from ideological and political conditioning, we can be effective in saying "no" to war and "yes" to peace, "no" to the arms race and "yes" to disarmament, "no" to an economy that impoverishes peoples and the Earth and "yes" to integral development.

Stewardship: November 2nd - All Souls Day

“...because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me....” JOHN 6:38

When praying the “Our Father”, say the words slowly so you truly recognize what you are saying. Every day when praying this prayer, we repeat what Jesus said in the scripture passage – “thy kingdom come, thy will be done.” Even though we say these words, do our actions reflect those words? This is the difference between saints and the rest of us. Saints were faithful and obedient to God’s will. Start today – start aligning your words and actions with God’s will for you.

Vocation Corner: November 2nd - All Souls Day

A Vocation View: Do whatever is necessary to see Jesus: climb a tree, make a retreat, confess your sins, read His life story, help an enemy, say a prayer. He will stay with you today.

Prayer: That the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in all those chosen to follow Him as priests, deacons or in the consecrated life, and that they in turn will be glorified for their faithfulness to His call, we pray to the Lord.

Action: Religious orders are not formed for the purpose of gathering together perfect people but those who have the courage to aim at perfection. Saint Francis de Sales

A wealth of vocation information is available at usccb.org, the website of the US Bishops

Join us the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month at 6:00 pm for Adoration

The act of adoration deepens one’s personal relationship with Jesus, allowing us to spend time in His presence, reflect on His love and sacrifice, and experience spiritual renewal.

Bishop's Annual Appeal: "Planting Seeds of Hope"

October 26, 2025 – December 31, 2025

Every gift is greatly appreciated!

If you do not wish to mail your donation, you may put it in the collection basket or slip it under the office door. Please make sure it is clearly marked "Bishop's Annual Appeal". These envelopes will not be opened but will be forwarded to the Diocese via Father Tru.

Our Liturgy Office helps our parishes to learn more about how to do good liturgy. Have you ever attended the annual Chrism Mass, a Baptism, Confirmation and First Eucharist, a Wedding or an Ordination? All of these celebrations are supported through the ministries funded by the Bishop's Annual Appeal. Help us continue to support these vital milestones of our faith through a gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal.

MASS TIMES ARE NOW at 10:00 AM

Mass Thursday Morning will be held at the Manor - 10:00
